Inner Belt Speed-Up Could Move Up Rte 2 Widening Schedule

Neutral Observer

Arlington's political picture may clarify somewhat before the end of this week, what with both the Democratic Club and the Town Committee scheduled to hold meetings.

The guess is that two or more of the present office seekers in the Selectman's contest will decide not to run. Seen as sure-fire candidates for the two seats up for grabs are Bob Porteus, Phil Pellegrini, Tom Rawbent Arthur D. Saul, Jr., and Arlington's first woman Selectman candidate since Margaret Spengler ran five years ago, Miss Marilyn Keefe.

One of the Town's leading businesses has taken another step toward modernizing the Mass. ave. area. Colonial Motors, Inc. plans a new parking display area next to the building now located at 745 Mass. ave. Two houses between the Oldsmobile Dealer building and Mill st. have been torn down and as soon as suitable weather arrives, the area will be hot-topped and lighted.

The Mill st., Jason st., Mass. ave., intersection has been improved by the clearing of the area in front of the Jason Russell House and this latest clearance will further beautify the corner. Further improvements are also planned not too far from the intersection by the Town. Now possibly there will be no further need of traffic officers at an intersection governed by traffic signals.

The Town lost that holiday look this week when the Christmas lights were taken down along the Avenue. Already, the holiday season seems like "a long time ago."

The Town suddenly acquired a new skating rink last week, man-made by accident one might say. Youngsters were observed playing hockey on a rain-flooded section of the Old Municipal Parking Lot next to the relocated Mystic st.

A news story in a Boston paper this week told how MTA officials were awaiting results of a study being conducted by engineers on the possibility of using diesel buses in the Harvard sq. Cambridge bus terminal. The story noted how Cambridge residents were complaining about having to stand outside in the cold waiting. Arlington commuters please take note.

Falls From Ladder

John Rafferty, 58, 459 Mystic St., was treated at Symmes hospital, Jan. 7, for an injury to his right hip sustained when he fell from a ladder at his home.

At Fiftieth Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. John B. Byrne, 13 Chestnut st., celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary at an Open House at the Knights of Columbus Hall, Saturday afternoon.

Selectmen Shocked By R.R. Ave. Figures

Members of the Arlington Board of Selectmen were visibly "shocked" at figures read Monday night by Town Manager Edward C. Monahan in connection with the proposed parking lot in the Railroad ave. vicinity.

A letter to the Manager from Town Engineer W. H. Roby indicated that in Mr. Roby's opinion, actual cost for the takings alone in the area could run well over $100,000.

The sense of the Board Monday night seemed to indicate that any decision on the matter would not be made in time for action at this year's Town Meeting.

However, the time is still available to insert an article in the Warrant before closing time a week from Monday. --And considerable thought, apparently is being given to the matter by several of the Town's official groups.

Sections of the Roby letter follow:

"The recommendation that the presently privately-owned parking areas are to be taken by the Town for public parking should be considered by others as it is my opinion that this problem should be decided by the Selectmen, Planning Board and Town Meeting after more opinions of the several business proprietors and the General Public have been obtained to determine if the required expenditure of money for the takings is justified and of sufficient benefit to business and town. "According to the Consultant's Report the estimated cost of the parking facility is $20,300 plus $10,875 for meters. In addition to this the cost of the land takings should be added. "The assessed value, plus 25 per cent, of the area to be taken is $38,675.00 whereas using the average assessed value per sq. ft. of the area in question, which is $2.75, the assessed value, plus 25 per cent, would be $81,081.00. The actual cost, in my opinion, could, therefore, run well over $100,000.00 for the takings alone.

"The Consultant's Plan of the Proposal shows two-way traffic; however, the width of the Town land between the rear corner of no. 13-15 Water st. and the Railroad right-of-way is only 13 ft. This would make it necessary to take a triangular piece of the rear corner of this lot to make the width at least 20 ft.

"In addition to the foregoing, I would like to add a possible, more or less temporary, solution which could be used until such time as the parking question has been more fully explored and the definite need for the large expenditure has been established.

"A driveway could be constructed from the present end of Railroad Avenue to Water Street and could eventually be incorporated into the proposed parking area or into a formal street, whichever is decided upon.

"It could be constructed 15 ft. wide so that parking on it would be prohibited, but would be ample for one-way traffic, including trucks. This would eliminate the traffic congestion in the area due to the turning-around movements and the exit on to Mass. Avenue and make it possible to have Water Street "one-way" from Court Street to Mass. Avenue. These changes are, in my opinion, very desirable and I would like to repeat a portion of my 1957 report on Highway-Traffic Control,

"Curb parking is expensive beyond computation and contributes more than any one factor to traffic congestion. -- Many other cases are known where parking control or reduction to improve traffic movement has helped business because of the simple fact that everyone avoids a congested area whenever possible."

"The smooth flow of traffic is the most important aim in Traffic Engineering and the installation of an exit on to Water Street would provide a beginning of the Railroad Avenue solution.

"This work is estimated to cost $7,640.00 and the moving of the Railroad Station would be unnecessary at this time.

Installation Rt. 2 Pipe Line To Resume Feb. 1

Installation of the M.D.C. pipe line along the northerly side of Rt. 2 from the new pumping station at the foot of Spring and Jason sts., has been held up temporarily because of the winter weather.

An M.D.C. spokesman told the News this week that continuation of the work will not begin until good weather sets in once again and not before February 1.

The particular section of line now under construction which is expected to aid residents west of Arlington, will be continued along Rt. 2 to Watertown st. When the job is completed that far, a new contract will be let out for continuation as far as Waltham st., in addition a new tank will be constructed on Walnut Hill.

Mr. Toole of the M.D.C. told this reporter that it would be dangerous to continue the construction work on the westerly side of Belmont Hill during the winter weather. He also explained that plants manufacturing bituminous used in resurfacing such an area are closed during the season of the year.

Although plans for the relocation and widening of Rt. 2 between Arlington and Belmont remain unchanged, statements made in the inaugural address of Governor John A. Volpe last week indicate that some action might be forthcoming on this matter in the future.

This paper, which has made a practice of calling the State Department of Public Works from time to time in an effort to determine if any change in immediate plans are "in the works" called again last Thursday, the day of Mr. Volpe's address.

A spokesman at the Boston office stated that the proposed plans are no different now than they were two years ago and that no immediate action is pending.

However, he did indicate that the statement made by Mr. Volpe urging a speed up by the Department of Public Works in the so-called Inner Belt could well mean that some action on the widening of Rt. 2 which route would empty traffic into the Inner Belt section might not be far behind.

Some two years ago, proposed plans for the widening of Rt. 2 in the Belmont Hill area and plans for the widening and relocation from the Spy Pond area to the Cambridge line were discussed in detail by the Arlington Board of Selectmen.

The matter has been of the "sleeping dog nature" since that time.

Mr. Volpe's discussion of the Department of Public Works, and the highway plans in the state included the following statement:

"As one who has been directly connected in the past with the planning and implementing of the State's highway program, let me express the view that the Department has been delinquent in advancing the progress of the urgently required inner-belt highway in Boston, Boston, the major city in the Commonwealth, and one beset with increasing problems of traffic strangulation, vitally needs this inner-belt-as does Cambridge whose urban-renewal program has been seriously impeded by the delay. The Department should move forth-rightly to deal with this vital link, already some two years overdue in terms of undertaking construction."

"Noise Or No Noise" Problem Puzzles Bd.

The puzzling question of whether or not there is noise at the Cities Service station on Mass. ave., was thrashed out by the station's proprietor, Malcolm Keljekian, representatives of the Company, Latshaw and O'Hara, and members of the Board of Selectmen Monday night.

Complaints have been received by the members of the Board of noise in the area of the station, particularly in the early hours of the morning.

Puzzling to the members of the Board was that whenever members of the police departments checked at the station, nothing unusual was encountered.

A spot check by an inspector in the Arlington police department on last Friday, Saturday and Sunday pointed out the fact that 22, 25, and 24 cars were parked in the area during the evening hours.

The Board of Selectmen, Monday night, approved the appointment by the Town Manager of John W. Walsh, 3rd, 9 Cheviot Rd., to the Board of Park Commissioners for a three-year term, expiring Dec. 22, 1963.

He succeeds Frank J. Hughes, whose personal commitments preclude him from accepting reappointments.

Subsequently, from 1949 to 1952, he held the same position at Thornton Academy, Saco, Maine. From 1952 to 1960, Mr. Walsh has been in the School Department of the City of Melrose where he has served as Head Baseball and Football Coach. At the present time, he is Track Coach in Melrose High School. His professional duties include that as of Counselor in the Melrose High School Guidance Department. In his outside activities, Mr. Walsh has always been interested in summer camps; he does, in fact, as proprietor, operate a summer camp of his own for youngsters.

In a news release to this paper this week Bob Porteus announced his candidacy for the office of Selectman in the Town of Arlington.

The release reads as follows:

"Robert W. (Bob) Porteus of 38 Frost Street today announced his intentions to seek a seat on the Arlington Board of Selectmen. A lifelong resident of Arlington, Bob Porteus presently serves as a town meeting member from Precinct 9 and is a member of the Arlington Republican Town Committee. He is also the Republican State Committeeman from the district which includes Medford, Winchester and Woburn in addition to Arlington.

"Bob has been a most active figure in many political campaigns. A notary public, Porteus serves as public relations director for General Suburban Associates Inc., and was recently named to the Board of Directors for that corporation. He also has been a maître d' and entertainer at leading pleasure resorts on Cape Cod. He is and has been a leader in various fraternal and civic activities. His presence has also been noted in work for numerous charitable endeavors. While at Boston University, Bob Porteus served on many student government boards as an elected leader. For these efforts, he won the honorary blue key for outstanding participation in extra curricular activities.

Fun? Jimmy Smith thinks it is - sometimes.

But having fun is hard when you can't walk. You can't reach things. You can't climb good. You can't go where other kids go.

Oh, you can push yourself around the house if you're lucky enough to have a makeshift go-cart. But how far can you really GO when you're born with a defective body?

Jimmy's too young to think about that, yet. But grown-ups should. They should know that medical science is working harder than ever before to build new lives for thousands of children born with serious birth defects. They should know it is the goal of the NEW MARCH OF DIMES to discover why birth defects happen in 1 out of 16 births, and to keep them from happening.

That's a big job. It will take knowledge, trained hands, hard work and money - the same ingredients that produced the polio vaccines. It takes the kind of help you give, when you say "Yes" to the NEW MARCH OF DIMES.

How Long Must We Wait

Two years ago, give or take a few months, the proposed widening of Rt. 2 from the Belmont Hill section easterly to the Cambridge line, was discussed at length at several meetings of the Board of Selectmen.

Members of the Board at that time discussed proposed plans for the project, wrote letters and went on to discuss the matter with "the powers that be" at a state level.

A year ago last month, the widening, and in cases relocation of Rt. 2, was again discussed by the members of the Board in conjunction with proposed plans for relocation of another major artery, Rt. 3.

From time to time, this newspaper has called members of the State Department of Public Works in an effort to obtain any leads on future plans on such a widening.

At all times, the answer was "the situation is unchanged."

From indications, such a project could take place suddenly, in a matter of months or could be held off for many years, pending the completion of other road projects throughout the state, deemed more vital.

Several times in recent years, members of the Arlington Board of Selectmen have expressed concern over the matter of safety along and across Rt. 2. They have asked for overpasses, they have asked for changes in turns at some streets intersecting on Rt. 2.

Generally, the answer received from the State, was that no definite action should be taken on the matter because of uncertainty as to when some action might be taken on the proposed widening of Rt. 2.

Several accidents of various degrees of seriousness have taken place on Rt. 2 in recent years. Each time, the cry has gone up for some action to be taken.

Last week an Arlington man lost his life while crossing Rt. 2 in the Belmont Hill area. Maybe its locking the door after the horse has been stolen, but it seems that there must be some solution to the crossing problem on this highway.

The particular section involved, extending from Appleton st. to the Cambridge line, is one in a residential area separating two communities.

It is not similar to the sections of Rt. 2 in the Concord-Lincoln area, where the houses are few and far between, and, the pedestrian travel is much less.

Residents of both communities, Arlington and Belmont, are forced by necessity to cross Rt. 2 by foot many times during the course of a week.

This writer, daily views the number of persons crossing or trying to cross the highway in the Belmont Hill section each morning between the hours of 8 and 9 o'clock.

What is the solution?

More traffic lights? No! This would not seem to be the solution. Where would they be placed except in the middle of the hill or opposite Spy Pond which would serve no general purpose.

Police officer directing traffic? This would serve no purpose except to tie up police officers for work the lights are supposed to handle.

The answer seems to lie in the construction of one or more, we think more, foot bridges across Route 2 from Appleton st. to at least the Lake st. area.

Persons wishing to cross the highway on the easterly side of Belmont Hill are faced with the choice of walking down to Pleasant st., walking up to Park ave., or trying to cross against the almost continuing flow of traffic.

The situation is the same on the other side of the Hill and is even more dangerous now with the installation of a pipe line in that section.

Arlmont Village residents do have some protection with a light control between Appleton st. and St. Camillus church, however, the problem on the other end of the Arlington section of the highway near Lake st. could prove to be the most serious.

Certainly, there is a light at the intersection, but safe passage across presents a problem. This passage is made more serious now with the construction of the M.D.C. skating rink on the southerly side of the highway in Belmont. This rink is used by many Arlington youngsters who MUST cross somewhere.

The solution—one or more overpasses—constructed at key points along the highway. Certainly, the money invested would be worth the saving of even one life.

Action is needed---

The Inside Story

Having mentioned the selectman's race last week I will focus this column on the race being waged for the three school committee positions.

Next to the office of selectman I anticipate a real, determined and well-organized effort behind the candidates for school committee.

Up until this column was written there were only five candidates for the office to which three will be elected. All are well qualified, well experienced in some phase of the school system and well informed as to the duties of a school committeeman.

A word on each candidate I feel is due, in order to inform the old as well as the new voters of each candidate's qualifications and background.

Carl Allen, who has never campaigned vigorously for re-election after his initial victory in 1949, will have to recognize the fact that he is in for the fight of his life.

Mary E. Porteus who was elected on the same ticket with Allen in '49, may suffer from the fact that her son is a candidate for selectman. Wonder if people will buy two candidates in one family. Shades of Wally Flynn a year ago.

Charles Kent, a two time loser until he cashed in on the release time issue and topped the ticket, is certain to be strong. Charlie has often been rumored as a candidate for selectman but continues to seek re-election to the board.

Bernard A. Forest has been a member of the board for one term but lost re-election in a good race with Dr. Mary Carter last year. Bernie was a professor of math at B.U., is extremely likeable and a conscientious office-holder. If he campaigns as he did on his initial victorious effort he will prove stronger than the other three.

Last and certainly not least is Edward McCann, a new face on the political horizon, who has every qualification for the office he seeks. Ed is a teacher in Woburn High, the recipient of a Fellowship from the National Science Foundation and is presently working on his Masters in Guidance. A field extremely important in the world of today.

Looking over the past weeks political activity, an unconfirmed rumor has it that the Dems have learned their lesson after losing the past three selectman races and have pursued three potential candidates with Democratic leanings to step down. This leaves two prominent candidates towards whom they will direct their efforts.

No word yet on Jim McGuinness, the custodian at the Capital Theatre, who has just returned from the hospital. Best wishes on a speedy recovery.

There is a new face on the selectman's field, and I might add a very pretty one. She is Marilyn Keefe of Russell Terrace.

More on these races as well as the two not covered as of yet. I shall attempt to search out the Inside Story in order to let you, the voters, evaluate the candidates.

Clean Slate On Back Taxes Here

Town Treasurer - Collector Francis A. Coughlin reported this week that all 1959 and prior Real Estate, Personal Property, and Poll taxes had been settled before the close of business on December 31, 1960.

Coughlin noted further that the balance of 1960 taxes outstanding in those categories at that time was only $151,390.38 out of the $6,716,946.22 committed by the Board of Assessors - a collection percentage of 97.75% on current year's taxes!

"Arlington citizens may be proud of their consistent record of prompt payment of taxes. This record has always enabled the town to market its issue of municipal bonds and notes at a very favorable rate of interest," Coughlin concluded.

What Selectmen Talked About

The Board of Selectmen Monday night voted that a letter be sent to the Department of Public Works asking for a new survey of the entire situation relative to traffic conditions on Rt. 2.

In the past the Board had asked alleviation of certain traffic conditions on the so-called "Concord Turnpike". The answer was always "widening of the highway is pending in the future."

The action of the Board came after a letter from James E. Ford, 287 Highland asked some type of action on Rt. 2 after the death of an Arlington resident in an automobile accident last week.

The application of Isabelle Cassidy, 323 Main st., Woburn, to maintain an Intelligence Office at 637 Mass. ave., was approved by the Selectmen at the Monday meeting.

The offer of John P. DeNapoli, 672 Summer st., to purchase nine tax possession lots on Draeon st., for the sum of $1400, was approved by the Selectmen Monday.

The Commissioner of Public Health has designated Dr. William C. McCarthy, 821 Mass. ave., as Chairman of the Medical Panel to examine Charles H. McCarthy, Motor Equipment Operator in the Public Works Department.

George W. Sands, 130 Margaret st., Joseph Phelan, 33 Lombard ter., and William Riordan, 203 Florence ave., have been selected to serve in the Jury Pool at the Criminal Session, Cambridge, beginning Feb. 7.

Fire Chief Thomas Egan, in a letter to the Board of Selectmen, has stated that there is no danger as far as the Fire Department is concerned relative to the application of Henry R. Gironi for the storage of inflammable fluids at the premise located at 96 Summer st.

The Selectmen will send a copy of a letter to those in charge of St. Paul's cemetery relative to ice skating on the graves in that cemetery.

The letter sent to the Board by Anne E. Berkeley, 9 Granville rd., Cambridge asked that body what could be done about the matter.

The Selectmen stated that they would co-operate as much as possible.

The Order of Notice relative to the Board's intention to lay out Candia st., from Washington st. to King st., was signed by the Selectmen Monday night.

The D. P. U. has granted permission to do away with the gate tender shanty in Arlington Center as soon as the traffic signals are in operation at the newly relocated Mystic st. Meanwhile, the traffic signals have been installed, but the control system has not yet arrived; it is expected sometime this week.

Students To Sew For Scholarship

The world of high fashion and the world of high school education will join hands as home economic students from Arlington High School take part in a fashion-sewing contest sponsored nationally by the General Federation of Women's Clubs and Vogue Pattern Service. The Arlington Woman's Club under the chairmanship of Mrs. Raymond E. Berglund will sponsor the local competition with the cooperation of the school's home economics department under the supervision of Miss Forsyth.

Each student entering the contest will make what she considers the "Ideal Costume for the High School Student's Dress-up Wardrobe." The local winner will receive $5.00 in cash, and will be eligible to represent the Arlington Woman's Club and the Arlington High School at the District judging. A State prize will be awarded as well as National honors. The National first prize in this contest will be a $1,000 scholarship (or cash). Other scholarships or cash awards of $500 and $250 will be awarded to the National second and third prize winners.

The purpose of this community-centered contest according to Mrs. Berglund, Contest Chairman, is to encourage young students to develop a deeper appreciation of homemaking skills. The satisfaction gained from creating her own wardrobe, from selecting an appropriate and becoming pattern, choosing practical yet fashionable fabrics, and using sewing skills to create her costume--will provide an important experience in a teen-ager's learning and growing.

Versatility, workmanship, fashion effect and becomingness to wearer will all be considered in the judging. To illustrate the last points, students will have an opportunity to model their own costumes when the judging takes place, locally.

Noise

According to the report, most of the cars serviced at the station late in the night were taxis.

Keljekian told the members of the Board that he continues to serve a fleet of eight taxis which he once owned; five of the cars in the grounds around the garage are his own, while the rest are those of customers.

He also stated that he services taxi cabs from Somerville and Waltham.

Selectman Arthur Saul stated that the problem of noise can be solved by an earlier closing time. He stated that residents in the area have a perfect right to complain of noise at 1-2 in the morning.

The night man, who has worked the 4 p.m. to 1 a.m. shift for Keljekian for some 3 to 4 months stated that he couldn't understand the complaints of noise.

Selectman Joseph P. Greeley asked that Mr. O'Hara of Cities Service talk to some of those residents in the area making the complaints.

Town Manager Edward C. Monahan stated that this was "begging the question." He wanted to know what the purpose would be.

Monahan added, that the police have already studied the matter.

Selectman Greeley stated that he felt that Mr. O'Hara could help solve the problem by discussion.

The Manager stated that he felt the answer would be to have an earlier closing time.

Selectmen Greeley and Buckley suggested that no greasing be done during the late hours.

The meeting broke with the thought of mutual cooperation to help solve the problem.

Exhibit At Historical Society Tea

A special exhibit arranged by Miss Ruth Sampson proved of unusual interest to the seventy or more people who attended the New Year's tea of the Arlington Historical Society at the Jason Russell House.

On display were articles carried or worn by Civil War soldiers between the years 1860-1864, as well as an iron kettle belonging to Jason Russell recently presented to the Society by a direct descendant, Mrs. Charles Smith of Orono, Maine. According to President Laurence L. Barber, Mrs. Smith stipulated that the kettle should be a permanent part of the furnishings of the Jason Russell House.

Also on exhibition were several letters written to James M. W. Yerrinton, the first reporter-stenographer in the United States, which were the gift of his granddaughters, the Misses Bertha, Elizabeth, Katharine and Margaret Yerrinton. Signatures on the letters included those of Susan B. Anthony, Wendell Phillips, Henry Ward Beecher, Lydia Maria Childs, Harriet Beecher Stowe, William Lloyd Garrison, Thomas W. Higginson, Samuel Gridley Howe and other equally prominent persons.

At the next meeting of the Historical Society, to be held in the Unitarian Church vestry on January 31, Carl A. Johnson, head of the history department at Arlington High School, will speak on "Jefferson -- Is Monticello America's Milltown?"

The mathematics teachers in Arlington's secondary schools last Thursday began a course on the new approach to mathematics. The course will continue weekly until June. It was arranged by Dr. Lawrence Anderson, assistant superintendent of schools, and Douglass Eaton, head of the mathematics department, at the request of the school committee.

There are several approaches to the new mathematics, but the approach used here will be that devised by the School Mathematics Study Group, the so-called Yale Plan. The course is being taught by W. Eugene Ferguson of Newton, who is a specialist in the field.

All members of the mathematics faculties of the senior and junior high schools are enrolled in the course, as well as representatives of the science department and the vocational high school.
